Kelly Quinn this is not a complaint...just an observation, this was the first time ever ever that i turned to my library system's IM feature and it was unavailable. first time ever and i have been peppering them with IMs for years across, multiple time zones at all and especially oddball hours. 3 hours ago

Jenny Presnell Networking has been odd... I've been on IM and get logged out without knowing it and not sure why. Don't give up on us... about an hour ago · Like · Delete

Elsa Barkley Brown o.k., this will be embarrassing -- I don't know anything about Miami and certainly have no association with the IMing -- but I'm just impressed that Jenny Presnell is one of your fb friends, Kelly, and I'm taking this chance to say how much The Information Literate Historian means to me! -- yes, I feel like this is one of my embarrassing groupie moments . . .

Sara Babcox First Prof. Brown's comment leads me to comment that well, the first time I saw the name Elsa Barkley Brown on Kelly's comments section, I had my own major star-struck groupie moment! Jenny Presnell is also impressive. I guess that Kelly just has the most celebrated friends' list around.
