the Oxford College and then in 1906 the Oxford College for Women. Ox College, as it was known colloquially, was merged with Miami University in 1928. The existing building was constructed in 1849-50, with additions and modifications in 1856, 1884, 1888, and 1894. In 1929, it was renovated to serve as a women's dormitory, with Neo-Classical features added at that time. It served as a dorm until 1998. Miami currently leases the building to the Oxford Community Arts Center.
